DETAILED ACTION

The cancellation of claims 1-4, 6-17, 21-23, 25-26 and 33-64 in the Preliminary amendment filed on 02/12/04 has been entered and made of record.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Sadd et al (6,307,782).

Sadd et al (Figs. 3-4) disclose a memory device comprising a substrate (inherent) and a single transistor formed (22, 24, 26 and 28) on the substrate, the transistor having a gate with a nonvolatile memory element (228, 248, 268, 288), wherein the nonvolatile memory element is connected to first and second bit lines (31, 33, 35 and 37) separated from each other, and wherein the first and second bit lines pass above the nonvolatile memory element.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 24 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sadd et al (6,307,782).

Claim 24 recites a feature of a sense amplifier is connected to the first bit line as a current measuring means which is not disclosed in Sadd et al. However, the use of current sense amplifier to sense the current on the bit line to read the data in the memory cell is conventional in the art. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at a time this invention made to use a current sense amplifier to sense the current on the bit line to read the data in the memory cell since such use of the current sense amplifier in read operation is well-known in the art.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 18-20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
6. Claims 27-32 are allowed.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
8. Muralidhar et al (6,320,784) disclose a memory cell having discontinuous storage element.
9. Zafar et al (6,413,819) disclose a memory having prefabricated isolated storage elements.
10. Forbes (6,574,144) discloses a flash memory with nanocrystalline silicon film coating gate.
